

Student Bill of Rights and Considerations Prior to Enrollment

Student Name

Student ID Number

This document must be given to enrolling veterans and eligible persons when using GI Bill® education benefits at a private postsecondary institution approved for the training of veterans by the Florida State Approving Agency. This is provided for informational purposes only and is intended to give you guidance in order to optimize the use of your VA education benefits:

- ▶ You have the right to investigate training alternatives. Be aware that tuition charged by institutions offering similar training programs can vary greatly. You may also seek payment of GI Bill® benefits for other types of training or career objectives, including Apprenticeship/OJT and Entrepreneurships.
- ▶ You have the right to fully explore a program prior to enrolling. You may check out the school's facilities and equipment, inquire about instructors' qualifications and class sizes, observe a class, and talk to current students. You may also ask to contact recent graduates to learn about their experiences with the school.
- ▶ You have the right to check with the Better Business Bureau, or other consumer protection agency, to find out if complaints have been filed against the school. You also have the right to verify the school's standing with any accrediting association and/or licensing agency.
- ▶ You have the right to clear information about the value of the training. Are the credits transferable to other institutions you may attend in the future? Will the training satisfy requirements for employment, or is it necessary for the position you are asking?
- ▶ You are entitled to clear data about the program's success rate. The institution will provide you with the completing and placement rates for the most recent years for which data is available. You will be given the definition of a "placement," including the length of time in the position. You will also be provided with the average starting salary.
- ▶ You are entitled to a clear statement of the total cost for completion of the program, including tuition, equipment and fees.
- ▶ You are entitled to a clear explanation, without coercion, of all financial aid options, before you sign up for any student loans.
- ▶ You are responsible for paying off a loan whether or not you complete the program. Failure to pay off a loan can lead to financial problems, including inability to get a future loan or grant for another training program, inability to get credit to buy a car or home, or garnishment of wages through the employer. You must begin repayment of the loan in accordance with the terms detailed within the financial aid documents.
- ▶ You have the right to read and understand the contract, and all other materials, before signing up.
- ▶ You are entitled to a clear explanation for the school's cancellation/withdrawal policy and procedures, to understand how to withdraw or cancel, and be informed of any financial obligations you will incur.
- ▶ You are entitled to a clear explanation of the school's refund policy, which can vary greatly. If you withdraw from a course after the first day of class, an overpayment of VA benefits can result. It is not uncommon for schools to charge the entire tuition cost at the point when you have completed just 60 percent of the program. If an overpayment is assessed, the VA will send you a debt letter for the cost of the training you did not receive. For example, you may drop at the 60 percent point, and be asked by the VA to repay 40 percent of the cost of the tuition. A debt related to payment of the housing allowance may also be assessed. Ensure that you review the school's refund policy to understand the consequences of withdrawing before the end of the term.
- ▶ You have the right to contact the feedback complaint system on www.va.gov or the state consumer protection agency if you are unable to resolve a complaint with the school.

Student Bill of Rights and Considerations Prior to Enrollment (cont.)

- ▶ Listed below are websites from the Department of Education or Consumer Financial Protections Board that provide valuable information about our University:
 1. The college Scorecard (<http://collegecost.ed.gov/scorecard/>) is a planning tool and resource to help you evaluate options in selecting a school
 2. The College Navigator (<http://nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator/>) is a consumer tool that provides you with information about our school, including tuition and fees, retention and graduation rates, use of financial aid, student loan default rates, and features a cost calculator and school comparison too.
 3. The Paying for College webpage (<http://consumerfinance.gov/paying-for-college/>) can be used to enter the names of up to three schools to receive detailed financial aid award information, and enter actual award information for comparison purposes.
 4. The Financial Aid Shopping Sheet website (<https://www2.ed.gov/policy/highered/guid/aid-offer/index.html>) provides information to help you understand the Shopping Sheet that will be provided to you by our financial aid office after you apply for financial aid.

Student Signature

Date