All Nursing students are required to provide proof of health insurance coverage to be included in their first clinical packets for clinical rotations; and to be maintained for continued participation in the program.

Note for Nursing students: All Nursing students entering Nursing core will be required to declare health insurance status, including health insurance provider and policy number, in conjunction with submission of their first clinical packet. In response to the requirements of clinical education sites and related consortia, the College of Nursing may require any student entering a clinical rotation to provide proof of health insurance as a condition of participating in the clinical education component of their pre-licensure program.

Violations of this policy will be addressed under the Student Code of Conduct.

Students, guests, and visitors are responsible for safeguarding personal belongings/property and maintaining insurance coverage for such items. The University does not provide or maintain insurance and does not provide financial protection against such belongings/property.

Social Media

West Coast University recognizes the increasingly common use of social media sites (including but not limited to: Twitter, Snapchat, Instagram, Facebook, Blogs, YouTube, and LinkedIn) as a form of communication. We respect our students' right to utilize innovative methods of sharing ideas and connecting with those who possess similar interests. We suggest that prior to posting on social media sites, students remind themselves to act responsibly and keep in mind that there are boundaries to consider before posting. Recognizing that as a student continues his/her education, and are considered for clinical, fieldwork, volunteer opportunities, and/or entering the work force, it's best to always portray oneself as a well-educated, polished professional.

Additionally, California law prohibits postsecondary educational institutions, and their associates and representatives, from requiring or requesting a student, prospective student, or student group to disclose, access, or divulge personal social media information. Associates may not ask students, prospective students, or student groups to:

1. Disclose a username or password for accessing personal social media.
2. Access personal social media in the presence of the associate.
3. Divulge any personal social media information.

These laws do not prohibit WCU from:

1. Exercising rights and obligations to protect against and investigate alleged student misconduct or violations of applicable laws and regulations; or
2. Taking any adverse action against a student, prospective student, or student group for any lawful reason.

Students of WCU are expected to abide by all WCU policies and those governing their chosen fields, including Copyright laws and the HIPAA Privacy Rule. Posting inappropriate material violates our Student Conduct Policy and may result in referral to the Conduct Committee for disciplinary action.

Please note that WCU reviews social media postings that identify the University on a daily basis. In addition, as a student, guest, volunteer, or individual representing or affiliated with WCU, all are expected to adhere to social media guidelines and policies of organization or event.

Social Media Guidelines and Tips:

Think Before You Post – Please remember to use good judgment and common sense when posting to social media outlets, and keep these guidelines in mind.

Know Your Legal Obligations – When posting anything online, abide by Copyright laws and the HIPPA Privacy Rule.

What is Copyright? – Copyright, a form of intellectual property law, protects original works of authorship including literary, dramatic, musical, and artistic works, such as poetry, novels, movies, songs, computer software, and architecture. Copyright does not protect facts, ideas, systems, or methods of operation, although it may protect the way these things are expressed.

For more information or questions about Copyright Law, visit:

www.copyright.gov/help/faq/faq-general.html#what

The HIPPA Privacy Rule – Never reveal any patient information on social media outlets. All HIPPA rules apply to social media sites. For more information on the HIPPA privacy rule, visit:

www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/index.html

Accountability – You are responsible for anything you post on your own and other social media sites. Remember that commentary deemed to be offensive, discriminatory, hateful, racist, sexist, or in violation of WCU policies may have negative ramifications to oneself and/or others (including but not limited to: removal of posts or referral to the WCU Conduct Committee for disciplinary action). Also keep in mind the potential for legal liability if commentary is deemed obscene, defamatory, threatening, harassing, bullying, infringing of copyright, in violation of a court order, or is otherwise unlawful as defined by the courts.

Utilize Thoughtful Confidentiality – Refrain from posting confidential information pertaining to WCU, its employees, students, and alumni.

Practice Respect of Others – West Coast University fosters a community of mutual respect. We encourage diversity of thought, ethnicity, culture, and experience, and we recognize that differing perspectives often create new ideas. Even when disagreeing with a concept or situation, the best way to have your opinions understood is to be constructive and respectful to the opinions and situations of others. Students are not to use social media to violate the University's anti-discrimination policies, to harass or bully other students, faculty or WCU associates, nor should social media be used to violate the personal privacy rights of others.

Be Aware of the Impression You Create – Keep in mind that social media has a global reach. Be thoughtful about what you post. Anything revealed on social media outlets (personal accounts included) remains available years after posts are created and/or deleted. What you put online is a representation of yourself, your family and friends, WCU, and current and future employers. Select your profile settings and avatars with the understanding that they have a broad reach and will impact how you are perceived by others. Future employers will research your social media history. Photos and comments have a lasting effect.

Solicitation and Distribution Policy

As a general rule, West Coast University prohibits persons who are not University officials or representatives from distributing any materials or soliciting any person on campus, while attending off-campus WCU events or in the adjacent area surrounding any University campus or event, unless such access is otherwise required by state law or statute. However, campus solicitation or distribution may be permitted on a limited basis for approved health-related or University-affiliated events/activities (such as but not limited to: health fairs; charitable and philanthropic activities; volunteer opportunities), as long as it supports the University mission statement or vision.

Authorization for campus and/or WCU solicitation or distribution is granted by submitting a completed Campus Activities Request Form that is available from the office of Student Affairs. If approved, all specific guidelines and/or restrictions stated during the approval process, as well as WCU policies and procedures must be followed.

Violation of this policy will be regarded as any other violation of University policy and may lead to sanctions, up to and including dismissal from the University.

Student Dress Code

Students are expected to maintain a neat and clean appearance during class time, as that is what will be required in their future career roles and positions. Students are expected to wear University approved uniforms when they are in a clinical setting. Individual programs may enforce a stricter dress code policy. Please refer to the respective Student Handbook or consult with program administration for any specific program requirements. Students must meet the standards of the program specific policies.

West Coast University understands and fully supports students' right to self-expression. The University also has an obligation to create a living and learning environment where all members of the community are comfortable and not offended by inappropriate dress. The dress code is designed to provide appropriate guidelines so that all students may dress in a manner that is respectful of themselves and the community. Dress that is neat and modest is the minimum requirement at all times in all public areas.

The following applies to all undergraduate students enrolled at WCU. The dress code applies to students at any WCU event, activity or function and in the classroom as well.

Any faculty member or administrator is free to advise and discuss the code with the student. If the matter is not resolved at that level, and the student is out of compliance with the University's dress code policy, any faculty member or administrator at WCU may refer any student to the following: (1) the Director of Student Affairs, or (2) another student affairs officer within a program, or (3) the Associate Executive Director, or the (4) the Executive Director. Via the referral or Conduct Complaint Form, the student may be counseled about his or her attire or the student may be asked to go home and change his or her attire. It should be noted that students may be marked absent if he or she is sent home. Repeated violations by a student will be sent to the Student Conduct Committee. Determination of whether or not a student's attire complies with the dress code is entirely at the discretion of the reviewing administrator identified above.

Exceptions to this dress code will be otherwise noted in the syllabus or other course communications as there may be instances where professional attire is required for a specific class or presentation.

It is expected that students display an appropriate level of judgment with regard to personal hygiene, grooming and dress. The following items of clothing or clothing style are unacceptable for students attending classes at WCU:

1. Soiled, stained, or excessively wrinkled clothing
2. Transparent, low cut or revealing clothing (no bare mid-ribs, muscle shirts, sagging or low waist pants with undergarments showing)
3. Visible undergarments
4. Short length shorts
5. Athletic type, wide arm hole tank tops
6. Bare feet (shoes must be worn at all times)
7. Accessories and jewelry that have writing, pictures of symbols or any other insignia, which are crude, vulgar, profane, obscene, libelous, slanderous, or sexually suggestive
8. All clothing will be free of profanity, slanderous language, or inflammatory causes
9. Pajama bottoms or tops

Also Note the Following:

1. Jewelry and other accessories must not interfere with the performance of duties or pose a safety hazard.
2. Appropriate personal hygiene is expected at all times, including keeping hair and nails well groomed.
3. Tattoos that may be offensive to visitors, employees or other students are not permitted. Examples of offensive tattoos include designs that are violent or threatening, sexual in nature, desecrate religious symbols, use profanity, etc.
4. Sandals, flip flops and sneakers that are in good shape (for example, no broken straps, clean) are acceptable footwear for students except in the science laboratories where no open toed shoes are permitted.

Please review program specific handbook for additional programmatic dress code requirements.

Accommodations will be made for students with specific medical conditions and/or religious beliefs that require special clothing, shoes and/or jewelry. Students who believe they need an accommodation should contact the Student Services department.

Student/Employee Fraternization

Employees of West Coast University are prohibited, under any circumstances, to date or engage in any improper fraternization or undue familiarity with students, regardless of the student's age and/or regardless of whether the student may have "consented" to such conduct. Further, employees must not entertain students or socialize with students outside of the University environment. Similarly, any action or comment by an employee which invites romantic or sexual involvement with a student is considered highly unethical, in violation of University policy, and may result in disciplinary action by the University. Inappropriate and unacceptable employee behavior includes, but is not limited to, dating; requests for sexual activity; physical displays of affection; giving inappropriate personal gifts; frequent personal communication with a student (via phone, email, letters, notes, text messaging, etc.) unrelated to course work or official University matters; giving or accepting rides, giving or offering housing, selling or buying anything of more than nominal value, providing alcohol or drugs to students; inappropriate touching; and engaging in sexual contact and/or sexual relations.

Students are also expected to behave in a professional manner towards faculty and staff and must follow the same guidelines as presented for employees. If a student witnesses or hears of an instructor or staff person's participation in an inappropriate relationship with a student, the incident should be reported to the campus Executive Director immediately.

Visitors on Campus

All guests on campus are required to wear a West Coast University badge while on the campus. Adult guests will be asked to show a picture ID (e.g., driver's license) and sign-in at the reception desk, where a WCU guest badge will be issued to them. The guest badges are to be returned when guests depart. Guests who are accompanied by students, faculty, and/or staff may enjoy the common areas on the campus which include the Quad and the Student Commons, but they may not use University equipment, such as computers. Guests may enter the Admissions Offices, or Financial Aid Offices, or other administrative offices but only if they are on campus to conduct appropriate University business or with a student or guest who is on campus to conduct appropriate University business. However, guests are not allowed in classrooms, the library, or any of the laboratories without the permission of the Executive Director, the Director of Student Services, or the Academic/Program Dean.

The intent of this policy is to allow visitors on campus while still ensuring safety. Security personnel or other staff members may approach a guest who is not obviously in the company of a student and ask the purpose of the guest's presence in the building, even when the guest is wearing a guest badge. Guests who refuse to wear the WCU guest badges or demonstrate inappropriate behavior while on University property will be escorted out of the building. No unattended children are allowed in the building. WCU students are ultimately responsible for, and can be held accountable for, the behavior of guests they bring to the campus. Guests are expected to abide by University policies and procedures.

Certain events and activities may be approved by the Campus Executive Director which allow for an exception or alteration of the check in and guest badge policy and process.

STUDENT SERVICES AND RESOURCES

West Coast University offers a variety of services to students. The University also maintains a list of outside services to assist students with personal needs, such as childcare, transportation, and other areas not directly related to their academic program of study. Please contact or visit the campus Student Affairs office for more information about these resources.

Activities and Events

Active involvement outside of the classroom contributes to our students' learning experience. Participating in extracurricular activities develops valuable leadership and organizational skills, and contributes to a graduate's marketability.

Student Services sponsors programs and events throughout the year to help create that sense of community which is vital to any institution of higher learning.

Please contact the Student Services Department for a copy of the Activities Request form or if you would like assistance requesting an event.

Advising and Tutorial Assistance

The University has established a multi-level approach to offer to students in support of their academic and personal needs. Staff and faculty members on each campus are available to assist students in academic guidance. The Academic Department is primarily responsible for addressing students' academic concerns while the Student Services Department is primarily responsible for other areas of concern and may provide referral services to external agencies as necessary in support of a student's successful program completion. Most WCU campuses have an active PALS (Peer Assisted Learning) tutoring feature which involves student-to-student tutoring. Visit the office of Student Affairs for more information about on campus and online tutoring resources.

Students who experience difficulty in their coursework and have a need for academic support should first contact the appropriate academic administrator for the program of study to create an individualized academic success plan. Many faculty offer tutoring for their courses. The University will try to accommodate students' schedules in determining tutoring sessions, but students should realize that they may need to adjust their schedules to receive the kind of remedial or tutoring support required. Students may also contact the campus /Student Affairs Advisor to engage in further discussions about how to address academic improvement concerns.

University Student Employment (Federal Work Study)

The Federal Work-Study program provides jobs for graduate and undergraduate students with financial need, allowing them to earn money to help pay education expenses. The program encourages community service work related to the student's course of study. Funds under this program are limited. The Student Affairs Office maintains a list of current Federal Work Study job opportunities available both on-campus and off-campus in community service organizations. Students interested in obtaining a part-time employment as a Federal Work Study student should inquire with the office of Student Affairs Office.

Employment as University Faculty and Administration

Students will not serve in a University faculty or administrative role within their own program. Nor will they have access to confidential records of University Associates and Faculty.

Career Services

The purpose of the Career Services Department is to actively assist students in obtaining employment, although the department in no way guarantees student or post-graduate employment. The department offers instruction and guidelines for students and graduates in areas such as career planning and job search techniques, resume writing, interview planning and preparation, understanding the importance of networking, completing job applications, the characteristics of a professional image, interview follow-up, workplace etiquette, and successfully navigating the workplace. Successful employment assistance is dependent upon a mutual effort by both graduates and the department. Graduates are encouraged to aggressively seek employment opportunities on their own, keep records of their contacts, and inform their Career Services Specialist of these efforts.

These employment assistance services are available to all students who successfully complete the requirements for graduation in their respective programs. Employment opportunities may be limited for any student who does not have a clear background check. Employment assistance services are available on an on-going basis to WCU graduates.

Counseling Resources

West Coast University recognizes that students may experience personal problems that can adversely affect personal fulfillment and their education. To assist students who may need that extra support, WCU offers a free, confidential Student Assistance Program (SAP) to students. SAP services are provided by Aetna, a private, national consulting and service firm that specializes in student assistance consultations.

If students need some help with everyday life issues, or if they find themselves in a crisis situation, the Student Assistance Program (SAP) is accessible 24 hours a day, 7 days per week through a toll-free number. WCU encourages students to utilize the SAP on a "when in doubt, call" basis. Problems that are appropriate for the SAP include, but are not limited to, problems or issues involving relationships with spouse or significant other, relationships with siblings or parents, relocation, stress, financial or legal problems, depression, substance abuse, and anxiety.

Call toll free: (877) 351-7889 or E-mail: AskSAP@aetna.com

Disability Services

In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), West Coast University abides by the regulation that “no otherwise handicapped individual” shall be excluded from participation in programs and services offered by the University “solely by reason of the handicap.” WCU is committed to providing reasonable accommodations.

Below is an example of some of the responsibilities of the WCU Disability Office:

1. Disability Office maintains confidential records.
2. Disability Coordinator(s) conducts initial meeting with the student to review services and required documentation.
3. Disability Coordinator(s) receives documentation from the student and conducts initial review and evaluation (verifies appropriate documentation, complete submission of documents, verifies disability, if needed consults with faculty, program chair, administrative departments, etc.).
4. Disability Coordinator(s) meets with the student to review documentation and appropriate/ reasonable accommodations.
5. Disability Coordinator(s) certifies approved accommodations.
 - a. Provides the student with “Letter of Accommodation(s)”.
 - b. The student signs “Letter of Acknowledgement and Student Responsibility”.
 - c. When available, provides the student with additional disability information and resources.

The above list of responsibilities is not all inclusive and may be affected by the timeliness of the student request and the nature of the accommodation requests. The ADA does not require institutions to provide accommodations that result in undue burden or fundamentally alter the nature of the course or relevant academic program. Students should submit written requests with supporting documentation at least six weeks prior to the beginning of the first day of classes or as soon as practical.

To request reasonable accommodations, students should contact the Student Services Office at their campus and speak with the Disability Services Coordinator.

Student IDs

West Coast University students are required to display their student identification card at all times while on campus and/or participating in events where WCU ID is required.

ID Replacement:

- There is a replacement fee for damaged, lost, or stolen ID cards. Please contact the office of Student Affairs for the replacement fee at your campus.
- If a student has an ID with incorrect information they may receive a free replacement. However, they must submit their old ID badge with the incorrect information in order to receive a free replacement.

Student Organizations

Joining a student organization can provide many opportunities and benefits. Making new friends, academic, professional, and personal growth, developing your social and leadership skills, getting involved with community service projects and broadening your academic, cultural, and social interests are a few of the ways student organizations may enhance your educational experience.

Contact Student Services if you are looking to join a club, start a club, or are the leader of an existing club.

Virtual Bookstore

Required and optional textbooks and course materials are available to on-ground students for purchase in print and/or electronic formats through the University's Virtual Bookstore. Students can access the Virtual Bookstore by visiting the University website at WestCoastUniversity.edu. To be eligible for participation in WCU Commencement exercises, the graduate/student must have:

Completed all graduation requirements,

OR

Based on space availability, those students who are active in their final term of courses may elect to participate prior to completing all graduation requirements.

For students who are active in their final term and elect to participate in commencement prior to completing all of their degree requirements, the following applies:

The title of valedictorian has long been used to designate a graduating student who has achieved the highest academic achievement. For each commencement ceremony, the Academic Dean (in collaboration with Program Deans/Chair and Campus Executive Directors) will determine who will be selected as valedictorian for each graduating class. From those select students, a single valedictorian from each program at each campus will be selected to represent their campus at commencement. One of the selected valedictorians will be invited to speak at Commencement Exercises. The following criteria will be used, in descending order, to select undergraduate campus valedictorians. The candidate must have:

1. Completed all graduation requirements.
2. Graduated with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.75.
3. The highest cumulative grade point average earned at the campus for that particular class.
4. No non-passing grades in any courses during the program.
5. Remained in good standing for the duration of his/her West Coast University career, free from any formal student conduct actions.

If multiple candidates meet all of the criteria outlined above, the following additional criteria will be used to establish priority:

 - a. Positions and participation in student leadership.
 - b. Volunteer time over and above minimum University requirements.
 - c. Special recognition while an active student.

ACADEMIC POLICIES and PROCEDURES

Academic Freedom Statement for Students

West Coast University supports academic freedom, cultural diversity, and intellectual exploration by our student population. Students will be evaluated on classroom and practical performance and not on ethnicity, political ideology, religious affiliation or other personally held belief systems. The University supports student academic freedom within the realm of prescribed student learning outcomes. WCU espouses freedom of expression as appropriate in classroom, clinical settings and other WCU-related activities and events.

Academic Honor Code

Academic honesty, integrity, and ethical behavior are required of all members of the University community. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner reflecting the ideals, values, and educational aims of the University at all times. Academic integrity and honorable behavior are essential parts of professionalism that will be required well beyond graduation. They are the foundation for ethical behavior in the workplace to which WCU students aspire.

The general public, as well as professional organizations and accrediting bodies, hold individuals in the healthcare industry to a high standard and expect the University to monitor the professional behavior of faculty, associates and students. As current or future professionals, students have a responsibility to follow this model and guide their actions to serve in the best interests of their fellow students, faculty and health care professionals and those they will care for as patients by maintaining the highest degree of personal and professional integrity. Students need to be aware of the fact that they represent their profession in and out of the academic environment. Therefore, allegations of misconduct, regardless where that misconduct may have occurred, will be taken very seriously.

Academic integrity requires that work for which students receive credit be entirely the result of their own effort. Acting honorably in an academic setting requires more than simple honesty. Academic dishonesty takes place whenever a student undermines the academic integrity of the institution or attempts to gain an unfair advantage over others. The following list includes some examples of Honor Code violations; the list is not intended to be exhaustive.

1. Cheating

- a. Using unauthorized materials such as books, notes, cell phones, PDA accessories or crib sheets to answer examination questions.
- b. Taking advantage of information considered unauthorized by one's instructor regarding examination questions.
- c. Copying another student's homework, written assignments, examination answers, electronic media, or other data.

- i. A form of sharing of other student's work that the University takes a dim view of is when students compile "study guides" on the basis of memorizing questions from exams, and then broadly sharing those guides. This violates the independent nature of student preparation for assessment, and thus can be determined to be a violation of the code of conduct.
- ii. Assisting someone else to cheat, or knowingly allowing someone else to cheat.
- iii. Failure to report cheating to an academic official of the University.

2. Plagiarism

- a. Representing the ideas, expressions, or materials of another without providing the author with due credit.
- b. Paraphrasing or condensing ideas from another person's work without proper citation.
- c. Failing to document direct quotations and paraphrases with proper citation.

3. Other forms of academic dishonesty

- a. Fraud, deception, and the alteration of grades or official records.
- b. Changing examination solutions after the fact, inventing, changing or falsifying laboratory data or research.
- c. Purchasing or in some other manner obtaining and then submitting written assignments, homework, or examinations that do not represent the student's original work.
- d. Reproducing or duplicating images, designs, or Web pages without giving credit to the developer, artist, or designer.
- e. Submitting work created for another course without instructor approval.
- f. Misrepresenting oneself or one's circumstance to gain an unfair advantage.
- g. Collaborating with another person(s) without instructor approval.
- h. Selling or providing term papers, course work, study guide or assignments to other students.

4. Sharing login and/or password information is prohibited.

There are several possible consequences for a student who has violated the University's Honor Code.

These include, but are not limited to:

- 1. Failure of the assignment
- 2. Failure of the course
 - a. A student is prohibited from withdrawing from a course in which an "F" grade is received due to a violation of the Honor Code
- 3. Expulsion from the University
- 4. Rescinding a certificate or degree

All violations of the Honor Code will be reported to the University's administration for further investigation. Individual reports will also be evaluated in the context of potential patterns of dishonesty. The faculty, in conjunction with administration, will make a determination of the effect on student status and/or course grades resulting from substantiated reports of honor code violations.

Academic dishonesty is a corrosive force in the academic life of a university. It jeopardizes the quality of education and depreciates the genuine achievements of others. It is the responsibility of all members of the campus community to actively deter it. Apathy or ignoring the presence of academic dishonesty is not acceptable. If students, faculty or staff members do not confront academic dishonesty, it will reinforce, perpetuate, and enlarge the scope of such misconduct. Further, ignorance of the University's Honor Code is not a valid excuse for engaging in prohibited conduct. All University community members are responsible for knowing, and living by, the Honor Code. Furthermore, all members of the University community including students, faculty, and staff share the responsibility and authority to challenge and make known acts of apparent academic dishonesty.

Collection of Student Assignments

Student learning outcomes are consistently assessed and collection of student evidence (or graded assignments), demonstrating outcomes throughout courses and co-curricular activities, is a means by which the University analyzes to what degree students are meeting outcomes. Instructors and/or administrators may retain student work for assessment purposes. All student work will be reviewed anonymously and in aggregate. Students may choose to not have their course work collected by completing an "Opt-Out form for Collection of Student Assignments" from the campus Registrar.

Dean's List

Undergraduate students who successfully complete a minimum of six credit hours of instruction in an 8- or 10-week term and achieve a grade point average of at least 3.75 are eligible for the Dean's List. The Dean's List is compiled at the completion of each term/trimester and eligible students will receive a letter recognizing their academic achievements. Please refer to the catalog for GPA calculation.

Honors at Graduation

The University recognizes outstanding academic achievement of degree recipients upon successful completion of their program.

To be eligible for undergraduate honors recognition at the time of their graduation, the student must have achieved a cumulative grade point average based on the 4-point scale as follows:

- 3.50–3.69 Cum laude
- 3.70–3.89 Magna cum laude
- 3.90–4.00 Summa cum laude

The University will recognize academic honors and distinctions for graduate students at the time of their graduation. There are two categories of identification as described below:

- University Highest Honors – Top 3% of graduating class and a CGPA above 3.75
- University Honors – Top 4%–10% of graduating class and a CGPA above 3.75

Plagiarism Detection Website

West Coast University is committed to helping students learn about what is and is not plagiarism. As such, the University uses a plagiarism detection web-service to help students monitor themselves. Students can submit their work to this web-service in an effort to determine if the academic work is considered to be authentic or not.

In its commitment to academic honesty and accurate assessment of student work, the University reserves the right to submit student assignments to the website to check for similarities between student submissions and the internet, various research databases, and the website's database of previous student submissions.

In some instances, students may be required to electronically submit their work to the instructor or to the website, and by taking WCU courses, students agree that all assignments are subject to plagiarism detection processes and academic honesty policies. Assignments submitted to the website by the student or instructor will become part of the service's database and will be used for plagiarism prevention and detection. Student papers, however, will remain the intellectual property of the authors.

Student Records

West Coast University will maintain student records for each student, whether or not the student completes his or her educational program, for a period ending five years after the date of the student's graduation, withdrawal, or termination. Student transcripts will be maintained indefinitely.

Students are responsible for ensuring that current contact information is on file with the campus Registrar's Office. Any change in name, address, or phone number must be reported within 30 days of the change.

Tardiness/Early Departure

Students who arrive for class after the scheduled start time are considered tardy; students who depart from class before the scheduled completion time are considered to have "departed early." Faculty members will track student tardiness and early departures. Upon the second instance of tardiness/early departure, faculty members are advised to discuss the issue with the student. Please see the program handbook and/or course syllabus for additional information.

Transcript Policy

The Office of the Registrar provides the following services for students:

1. Attendance Monitoring (including Dismissals and Reinstatements)
2. Enrollment Verifications
3. Final Grade Processing
4. Grade Distribution
5. Transcript Evaluations
6. Transcript Requests
7. Withdrawal Requests

Transcript Requests

The University provides two standard transcripts, free of charge, for qualified students or graduates. When students have successfully completed their programs, a copy of the student's transcript will accompany their diplomas. One transcript will be sent to the Career Services Department to ensure distribution at the time the diploma is picked up by the student or mailed out by the Career Services Department. WCU will also provide another standard transcript, free of charge, to the licensing agencies listed below or for licensure purposes. Active, inactive and withdrawn students will be responsible for paying the applicable fee required for WCU transcripts.

Students will be assigned a clinical site or rotation that may require travel that is a greater distance than the student's commute to the campus. Site locations may be up to 75 miles away. The University cannot guarantee a particular site or geographic location. Students are required to provide their own transportation to and from the clinical site. It should be expected that the hours and days of a rotation will vary depending on the clinical site. Shifts may be assigned for any hour of the day or night. Shift hours cannot be guaranteed. See program specific requirements for clinical placements.

TEXAS Campus: Clinical and practicum experience required in some programs enable students to work with patients in order to apply the competencies and practices learned in the classroom in a real-world setting. See program specific requirements for clinical placement in the program specific admissions requirements.

Nursing Student Clinical Schedule

The number of contact hours required for each clinical course must be met by the end of the term, regardless of holidays within the term. The total number of contact hours required can be found on the course syllabi. Precepted courses must fulfill the required contact hours for each course on a schedule agreed upon between the Student and Preceptor, by the end of the term.

Dental Hygiene Student Clinical Schedule

Dental Hygiene students enrolled in preclinical or clinical courses are to follow the schedule as presented by the course director.

Clinical Work, Practicum and Fieldwork Experience Fair Practice Standards

When clinical rotations, practicum and fieldwork experiences are required for the student's degree program, it is an essential and invaluable component of student's education. These experiences are a natural and logical extension of their education, and are consistent with the University mission as an effort to ensure graduates are prepared for their professional careers. As such, the following policy ensures that students get the maximum educational value and from their clinical rotations, practicum and fieldwork experience.

As Applicable to the Program of Study:

1. West Coast University's students are not to be paid for any of the activities they perform during their clinical rotations.
2. Clinical Affiliate sites are not to reduce their personnel as a result of the acceptance to host WCU clinical students.
3. A clinical instructor or preceptor is to be present at all times during the procedures in which students are actively involved in a clinical setting.
4. Students are allowed to procure gainful employment outside of their scheduled clinical rotation session hours.

Clinical and Program Health and Safety Requirements

West Coast University students enrolled in programs involving clinical, lab, practicum, experiential, or fieldwork experiences are required to complete health and safety requirements according to individual program and site requirements. Because many students are involved in direct patient care in health care careers, they may be exposed to conditions of high risk and therefore must be protected. Patients must also be protected against potential health risks from students. See program-specific sections in the Catalog and/or the program handbook for additional requirements.

A student's failure to comply with health insurance coverage requirements, especially those associated with clinical, practical, experiential, or fieldwork experiences or global studies opportunities may result in the inability to enroll in or removal from required courses or programs, which will likely result in a delay in the student's ability to complete the degree. It may also result in additional financial cost of degree completion. The University does not have an obligation to guarantee the availability of rotations to students who do not meet University or affiliate partner requirements.

University administrators responsible for managing student assignments to clinical courses/practical, experiential, or fieldwork experiences, international studies opportunities or other applicable educational activities are granted the authority to make decisions related to course assignments of students who fail to comply with health insurance coverage expectations/requirements. Such decisions will be made in the best interest of preserving the institution's relationship with clinical partners.

COVID-19 Vaccination Policy

COVID-19 is a highly transmissible respiratory illness that the World Health Organization (WHO) has declared a pandemic. It causes symptoms ranging from mild to severe and can lead to life-threatening illness, hospitalization, and death. COVID-19 vaccines have been carefully evaluated in clinical trials and authorized by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for emergency use. These vaccines make it substantially less likely an individual will contract COVID-19 and become seriously ill or die, and they protect not only the individuals vaccinated, but also others in the community, particularly those who are at increased risk for severe illness from COVID-19.

Due to the pandemic, many clinical partners displaced student clinical rotations, preventing students from receiving direct patient clinical education. As the pandemic wanes and clinical partners invite WCU students back for this essential part of their education, it is imperative that students are prepared to step into any clinical facility with whom we partner. As has always been the case, our students need to meet our clinical partner's rules and regulations which includes adhering to their requirements for immunizations.

Not surprisingly, many sites are now requiring any student in attendance to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19.

While WCU does not require students to have received a COVID-19 vaccination, and while our institutional perspective is that obtaining the vaccination remains a personal choice, this is not the case for a growing number of our clinical partners.

As such, WCU students enrolled in programs involving clinical, lab, practicum, experiential, or fieldwork experiences are required to complete health and safety requirements in alignment with individual program and clinical partner expectations, including getting vaccinated against COVID-19 if that is what is required by the clinical partner.

This policy language is in alignment with the clinical partner requirements policy shared with and acknowledged by students during the admission process:

A student's failure to comply with clinical packet requirements may result in the inability to enroll in or removal from required courses or programs, potentially resulting in delay in/inability to successfully achieve degree completion and/or additional financial cost of degree completion. The university and its associates do not have an obligation to guarantee the availability of clinical rotations of students who do not meet university or clinical partner requirements according to the established timelines, processes, and policies.

While WCU will make every effort to locate a clinical site for students that are unwilling to get vaccinated, the University cannot guarantee site placement.

In addition to providing evidence of previously required immunizations, the University must also provide proof that students are fully vaccinated, to those clinical partners who require COVID-19 vaccination before participating in clinical rotations at their facilities.

A fully vaccinated individual under this policy has received all required doses of an FDA (or non-U.S. equivalent public health authority) approved SARS-COV-2 (COVID-19) vaccination.

1. Pfizer-BioNTech (0.3 ml each): two doses at least 3 weeks (21 days) apart, but no more than 6 weeks (42 days).
2. Moderna (0.5 ml each): two doses at least 4 weeks (24–28 days) apart, but no more than 6 weeks (42 days).
3. Janssen, Johnson & Johnson (0.5 ml): one dose.
4. Per the CDC guidelines, people are considered fully vaccinated:
 - a. 2 weeks after their second dose in a 2-dose series, such as the Pfizer or Moderna vaccines,

OR

- b. 2 weeks after a single-dose vaccine, such as Johnson & Johnson's Janssen vaccine.

Vaccination documentation can be uploaded into the student's program approved platform. For example: www.westcoastuniversitycompliance.com.

Please note that there is one exception to this policy: All BSDH students are required to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 vaccine in order to act as a healthcare provider in the on-site Dental Hygiene clinic.

The Top-Up Benefit

If you are eligible for the Montgomery GI Bill® (MGIB) Active Duty or Post-9/11 GI Bill® and plan to use Military Tuition Assistance (TA), you can use the Federal Assistance Top-Up benefit to cover the difference between your college course cost and the amount that TA will cover.

To use the Top-Up, you must be approved for Federal Tuition Assistance and be eligible for Montgomery GI Bill® - Active Duty benefits or Post-9/11 GI Bill®. To be eligible for MGIB benefits, you must be an MGIB - Active Duty participant and have served at least two full years on Active Duty.

The amount of the benefit is limited to the amount you would receive for the same course if regular Montgomery GI Bill® benefits were being paid. In no case, can the amount paid by the military combined with the amount paid by VA be more than the total cost of the course.

If you receive the Top-Up benefit, your regular VA benefits will be reduced. The amount of entitlement charged for Top-Up payments for MGIB is determined by dividing the amount of the payment by your full-time monthly rate.

The benefit is available for all courses that began on or after October 30th, 2000. A copy of an approved Tuition Assistance Authorization form for the course is required. If you have not requested VA benefits before, you should submit VA Form 22-1990 to establish eligibility.

Zero Tolerance

West Coast University prohibits domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. WCU maintains a zero-tolerance policy for the above offenses. Toward that end, WCU issues this statement of policy to inform the campus community of our programs to address domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking as well as the procedures for institutional disciplinary action in cases of alleged dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, which will be followed regardless of whether the incident occurs on or off campus when it is reported to a University official.

WCU does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs. Sexual harassment and sexual violence are types of sex discrimination. Other acts can also be forms of sex-based discrimination and are also prohibited whether sexually based or not and include sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. As a result, the University issues this statement of policy to inform the community of this comprehensive plan addressing sexual misconduct, educational programs, and procedures that address sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, whether the incident occurs on or off campus and when it is reported to a university official. In this context, WCU prohibits the offenses of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking and reaffirms its commitment to maintain a campus environment emphasizing the dignity and worth of all members of the university community.

It is the policy of WCU that no member of the campus community, students, faculty, administrators, associates, vendors, contractors, or third parties, may conduct sexual violence or harassment on any other member of our community.

The state underage drinking laws are enforced by the appropriate local law enforcement agency with jurisdiction based on where the violation occurred. WCU maintains a zero-tolerance policy with regard to possession, use, and sale of illegal drugs on campus and University policy prohibiting violations of federal and state drug laws. The local police agency with jurisdiction based on where the violation occurred strictly enforces federal and state drug laws.

WCU associates and faculty are provided with drug and alcohol-abuse information as per the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act (DFSCA) in the associate handbook during orientation. Students are provided with drug and alcohol-abuse information in their student enrollment packets. This information is updated annually or as circumstances dictate. WCU refers all persons identified in need of drug and or alcohol abuse counseling to a confidential referral program. For more information, students should contact the Director of Student Affairs.

Weapons Policy

West Coast University policy prohibits all persons who enter University property from possession, use, manufacturing, distributing, sales, etc. of any firearm, knives, explosives of any kind, TASERS, or other weapons capable of threatening or producing bodily harm, regardless of whether the person is licensed to carry the weapon or not; with the exception of authorized law enforcement officials, contracted security personnel, and WCU associates specifically authorized to carry weapons for security purposes. Anyone found in violation of WCU's policies shall be subject to disciplinary policies and procedures applicable to students, associates, and/or criminal prosecution by the appropriate jurisdiction.

Individuals should immediately report weapons violations to the Global Security Operations Center (GSOC) at the campus or by dialing (855) 955-9911 or call 911 if they feel an immediate threat of bodily harm. It is important to provide a description and location of the individual carrying the weapon. Contracted security partners have and will continue to investigate any threat to the safety of WCU students and associates.

WCU Alert System

The LiveSafe app is a great way to connect to your organization. By having it at your fingertips, you can share safety and security information, alert management to a potential hazard, and discreetly request assistance from the appropriate department or contact. Learn how to download it to your iOS or Android device.

LiveSafe - How to Download

Throughout the duration of an emergency event, students, faculty, and associates may receive operational status reports through various means. During emergencies, the LiveSafe system will be the primary means of mass notification. LiveSafe provides various communication tools to communicate to subscribed students, faculty, and associates via registered devices and email accounts. This includes text messages, push notifications and email messages.

In addition to LiveSafe, WCU may communicate emergency and operational status information through the following means:

1. WCU Homepage.
2. Banners at the top of WCU owned websites.
3. Social Media, including Twitter, Facebook, and Google.

All students, associates and faculty are enrolled in the emergency notification system automatically and are encouraged to download the LiveSafe mobile phone app (instructions can be found on the associate and student intranets).

Students, faculty, and associates are also encouraged to listen to local radio and television stations for information regarding severe weather information, including evacuation-related requirements. WCU maintains a multi-faceted emergency communications network which is activated when an immediate notification must be made to the entire community.

Emergency Response Plans

West Coast University maintains a Crisis and Emergency Management Plan and associated Emergency Action Plans for each campus that outline responsibilities of campus units during emergencies. These plans outline incident priorities, campus organization, and specific responsibilities of particular units or positions and are posted on the University Intranet and in the LiveSafe mobile application.

University units are responsible for developing and maintaining emergency action and continuity of operations plans for their areas and associates. The Safety and Security Department provides resources and guidance for the development of these plans. The Emergency response and evacuation procedures are reviewed and updated on an annual basis in conjunction with the annual drill evacuations. Each test, a description of the exercise, the date, and time and whether it was announced or unannounced is documented. A copy of the report could be accessed through Global Security Operations Center (GSOC).

At least once a year, WCU will conduct an announced or unannounced test designed to assess the emergency plans and capabilities of the campus, provide feedback to judge capabilities and limitations of the emergency plan and include at minimum drills, exercises, and follow through activities. The annual test is designed and implemented to meet Clery regulations and intended to keep the faculty, associates and students informed about threats to their safety and health in a manner that allows them to protect themselves. These tests include a test of the LiveSafe mass notification system. An after-action report is generated for each annual test and incorporated into the periodic risk assessment for each campus and can be requested via the Global Security Operations Center (GSOC) at (855) 955-9911. This after-action report documents the date and time of each exercise, whether the exercise was announced or unannounced, a general description of the exercise, general observations, and specific suggestions for improvement.

Each test, a description of the exercise, the date, and time and whether it was announced or unannounced is documented. A copy of the report could be accessed through Global Security Operations Center (GSOC).

The campus publicizes a summary of the emergency response and evacuation procedures via email at least once each year in conjunction with a test (exercise and drill) that meets all the requirements of the Higher Education Opportunity Act.
