

Violations and Sanctions

Violation	Recommended Sanction for First Violation	Recommended Sanction for Second Violation
Illegal drug use or possession (including drug paraphernalia - on or off campus; failing drug tests) Violations of Law	Suspension from clinical courses. Referral to the Conduct Committee. Depending on program, licensure requirements, affect of violation towards licensure, and nature of the incident, the Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss or impose sanctions such as: completion of drug and assessment and/or education program, reflection paper about drug abuse (unless otherwise stated in Program specific policies)	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Any violation of law that would affect the student's ability to be licensed (whether occurred on or off campus) Violations of Law	Possible suspension - depending on nature of violation. Referral to the Conduct Committee. Depending on program and licensure requirements, affect of violation towards licensure and nature of incident, the Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss or impose sanctions such as: completion of a specific type or treatment and/or education program, reflection paper related to the type of incident (unless otherwise stated in Program specific policies)	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Any violation of law that would be considered a violation of Student Conduct Code (whether occurred on or off campus) Violations of Law	Possible suspension - depending on nature of violation an immediate suspension may be sanctioned by the Executive Director. The suspension will typically last the length of the conduct investigation and hearing/hearing outcome. Referral to the Conduct Committee. Depending on program and licensure requirements, affect of violation towards licensure and nature of incident, the Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss or impose sanctions such as: completion of a specific type or treatment and/or education program, reflection paper related to the type of incident (unless otherwise stated in Program specific policies)	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.

Violations and Sanctions

Falsifying information (including forgery, documentation, reports or warnings submitted to the University or WCU Community, identity theft, fraudulent acts, etc.) Referral to the Conduct Committee: If found in violation - Dismissal
Violations of Law
Theft Violations of Law	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss, suspend and or impose sanctions such as restitution	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Possession of stolen items Violations of Law	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss, suspend and or impose sanctions such as restitution	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Threatening or endangering others (through any means, intimidation, physical harm, comments or actions that unintentionally or intentionally intimidate, harm, harassment, interfere, etc. on or off campus) Violations of Law	Possible suspension - depending on nature of violation an immediate suspension may be sanctioned by the Executive Director. The suspension will typically last the length of the conduct investigation and hearing/hearing outcome. Referral to the Conduct Committee: If found in violation - Dismissal
Unauthorized use or possession of a weapon and or accessory to a weapon (including but not limited to: knives, firearms, explosives, ammunition, flammable substance, etc) Violations of Law	Possible suspension - depending on nature of violation an immediate suspension may be sanctioned by the Executive Director. The suspension will typically last the length of the conduct investigation and hearing/hearing outcome. Referral to the Conduct Committee: If found in violation - Dismissal

Violations and Sanctions

Destroying, damaging, defacing University property or property of others. Violations of Law	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss, suspend and or impose sanctions such as restitution, community service (removal of graffiti in the community, etc.)	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Endangering self (on or off campus) Violations of Law	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action.	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Sexual harassment, misconduct, assault or lewd behavior Violations of Law	Possible suspension - depending on nature of violation an immediate suspension may be sanctioned by the Executive Director. The suspension will typically last the length of the conduct investigation and hearing/hearing outcome. Referral to the Conduct Committee: If found in violation - Dismissal
Disruptive behavior that prevents other students from being able to learn or express academic freedom Violation of Academic Honor Code, Code of Conduct	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to suspend and or impose sanctions such as probation, reflection paper, etc.	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Submitting falsified assignments (either partially false or wholly false) Violation of Academic Honor Code, Code of Conduct	"F" on the project and in the course - referral to the Conduct Committee for documentation and possible further disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss or impose sanctions such as reflection paper, probation, action plan	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.

Violations and Sanctions

Copying answers from others or allowing others to copy - exams, coursework, quizzes, projects, assignments	"F" on the project and in the course - referral to the Conduct Committee for documentation and possible further disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss or impose sanctions such as reflection paper, probation, action plan	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Violation of Academic Honor Code, Code of Conduct
Submission of others work/plagiarism	"F" on the project and in the course - referral to the Conduct Committee for documentation and possible further disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss or impose sanctions such as reflection paper, probation, action plan	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Violation of Academic Honor Code, Code of Conduct
Improper use of APA writing format (citations, sources, acknowledgments in essays, papers, assignments, quizzes, exams, etc.)	Faculty determines if student has a clear understanding of APA writing style. If yes, "F" on the project and in the course - referral to the Conduct Committee for documentation and possible further disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss or impose sanctions such as attend a writing workshop (offered by outside vendor), tutoring, reflection paper, probation, action plan	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Violation of Academic Honor Code, Code of Conduct
Improper acquisition of papers, exams, quizzes, or other assignments from any source other than the owner or faculty.	Referral to the Conduct Committee: If found in violation - Dismissal
Violation of Academic Honor Code, Code of Conduct
Sharing with others any papers, exams, quizzes, or other assignments that were not properly acquired.	Referral to the Conduct Committee: If found in violation - Dismissal
Violation of Academic Honor Code, Code of Conduct

Violations and Sanctions

Continuing to work on project or exam after time has ended	"F" on the project and in the course - referral to the Conduct Committee for documentation and possible further disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss or impose sanctions such as reflection paper, probation, action plan	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Violation of Academic Honor Code, Code of Conduct
Not turning in assignment, exam and claiming instructor lost it	"F" on the project and in the course - referral to the Conduct Committee for documentation and possible further disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss or impose sanctions such as reflection paper, probation, action plan	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Violation of Academic Honor Code, Code of Conduct
Changing answers or portions of work after exam, quiz, project, assignment has been graded - without faculty permission	"F" on the project and in the course - referral to the Conduct Committee for documentation and possible further disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss or impose sanctions such as reflection paper, probation, action plan	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Violation of Academic Honor Code, Code of Conduct
Use of or sharing notes, exams, materials, etc. from current or previous courses without the faculty or owner's permission (regardless of how obtained).	Referral to the Conduct Committee: If found in violation - Dismissal
Violation of Academic Honor Code, Code of Conduct
Hindering others work	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action.
Violations of University Policy

Violations and Sanctions

Pretending to be another student or representative of the University	Referral to the Conduct Committee: If found in violation - Dismissal
Violations of University Policy
Misuse of University computers/ computer systems (including improper downloading of material, sending improper messages, etc.)	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. Including but not limited to restricted use of computers	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Violations of University Policy
Unauthorized use of University resources (library, copiers, printers, etc.)	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. Including but not limited to restricted use of University resources	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Violations of University Policy
Unauthorized use of facilities (including labs and lab equipment, clinics and clinic equipment, sim center and sim center equipment)	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. Including but not limited to restricted use of facilities	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Violations of University Policy
Violating University and or University Community rules (includes Clinical Affiliates), policies and or guidelines (safety, administrative, other)	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss, suspend and or impose sanctions such as probation, reflection paper, etc.	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Violations of University Policy

Violations and Sanctions

Disrupting or interfering with University or WCU community events Violations of University Policy	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss, suspend and or impose sanctions such as probation, reflection paper, etc.	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Unprofessional behavior and or misconduct Violations of University Policy	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss, suspend and or impose sanctions such as probation, reflection paper, etc.	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Failing to follow directions of University officials Violations of University Policy	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss, suspend and or impose sanctions such as probation, reflection paper, etc.	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Obstructing and or disrupting University Officials from being able to perform job related duties and tasks (interference in any manner) Violations of University Policy	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss, suspend and or impose sanctions such as probation, reflection paper, etc.	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.
Encouraging others to obstruct or disrupt University officials and or students Violations of University Policy	Referral to the Conduct Committee for possible disciplinary action. The Conduct Committee may elect to dismiss, suspend and or impose sanctions such as probation, reflection paper, etc.	Dismissal: If not dismissed the first time, will be dismissed if there is a second violation.

Violations and Sanctions

Violating terms and or conditions of sanctions, appeals, probation

Dismissal without the right to appeal

Violations of University Policy

If related to Admissions process:

Admission to University may be revoked without option to reapply

*If discovered or happens after degree
conferral:*

Degree may be revoked