

Student Right-to-Know Disclosure

CENTER FOR GRADUATE STUDIES

In accordance with the Higher Education Act (HEA) of 1965, as amended, each postsecondary educational institution must publish information regarding graduation rates, retention rates, and student diversity for its undergraduate programs as defined by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES).

The West Coast University – Center for Graduate Studies only offers graduate programs, and therefore does not have undergraduate data to publish.