

Assisting Survivors with Reintegration through Resource Pathways

Mharyna Leysa Gealogo, OTD/s

Faculty Mentor: Rhonda Windham, OTD, OTR/L • Site Mentor: Esther Suh Kwon, M.A., OT/L

QUALIFIED

DCE Site: Qualified

- Non-profit organization in Los Angeles, CA
- Service women-survivors and individuals at-risk of human trafficking
- Services include:
  - Occupational Therapy (OT)
  - Career Mentorships
  - Life and Professional Development Courses

Needs Identified

- Reaching Target Population
- Sustainable Funding
- Resource Pathways

Literature Review

- Collaborative care is ideal in order to provide the clients a leading role in care planning, address the diversity within survivors context, and develop standards of care and services (Tsai et al., 2020; Bintliff et al., 2018)
- There is a lack of research regarding survivor reintegration (Schroeder et al., 2024; Ramaj, 2023)
- There is a need for follow-up and social support post-completion of rehabilitation programs (Schroeder et al., 2024; Tsai et al., 2020)

Learning Objectives

1. Developed resource pathways for women survivors of sex trafficking to utilize for reintegration
2. Developed a progress template for Qualified
3. Evaluated the effectiveness of resource pathways
4. Developed a CalVCB application process document
5. Utilized Qualified’s social media account to bring awareness to OT within the survivor population

Scholarly Deliverables

- Employee Manual: Assisting Alumnae with Accessing Resources
- Community-Based Resource Pathways
- CalVCB Application Process Document
- Progress Tracking Sheet
- Social Media Flyers

Project Description and Implementation

Weeks 1-7

- Distributed survey to identify priorities among the alumna for community-based resources
- Developed Employee Manual, Progress Tracking Sheet, and Community-Based Resources

Weeks 8-14

- Implemented Employee Manual, Progress Tracking Sheet, and Community-Based Resources
- Developed CalVCB Application Process Document and Social Media Flyers
- Gathered feedback for scholarly deliverables
- Incorporated feedback for scholarly deliverables

Evaluation Outcomes

- Feedback survey for Resource Pathways (N=1)
- Interview with Qualifed staff (N=2)

Themes:

Beneficial

Straightforward

Relevant

Acknowledgements

Thank you to my site mentor, Esther, and my faculty mentor, Dr. Windham, for their continued support and guidance throughout my capstone project.

References

